

RLS DRAMA FOR ELEMENTARY STUDENTS

Open to students in grades: 1-5

Maximum number of students: 20

Class Fee: $100 (this covers the cost of scripts, costumes, props and sets)

3:15 – 4:30, Wednesdays and Fridays beginning October 5

Dress Rehearsal: Friday, November 18, 3:15 p.m.

Final Production: Saturday, November 19, 2:00 p.m.

Aesop's Facebook is a contemporary children's play that tells the tale about Aesop and his friend Rabbit. Aesop and Rabbit go on a fun filled journey as they discover what it means to be a friend. Filled with animal roles for children to get into and develop, the show is sure to provide opportunities for children to tap into their creative minds and express themselves.

Instructor's Bio:

Colin Mudd is a parent of one current RLS student, and one Alumni of RLS. He has over 20 years of experience working and directing Drama Productions. He majored in the Dramatic Arts at Truman State University. His credits include work with community theater programs like Stars Theater in Fuquay Varina and Holly Springs, and has taught the Middle School Drama Elective the last five years for RLS, producing The Idiodyssey, The Curse of the Cobras Kiss, Haphazardly Ever After, and No Place Like Nowhere. He has also taught RLS Drama extra-curricular classes for the last four years, including Little Women, Monologues for Actors, Auditioning Class, and Medley of Dr. Seuss, Alice @ Wonderland, and After Happily Ever After. Colin connects with kids to help them explore who they are and who they can be on stage.