

RLS Middle School Summer Reading!

Accumulate 100 points and turn in your evidence!

Due Friday, August 23, 2019!

- went to the library, asked librarian to help me find a book (5)
- read a classic drama (10)
- read about another culture (15)
- went to the library, returned book on time (and read it) (15)
- took a book to the beach, read for 30 minutes (5)
- went to library, borrowed a picture book about someplace I've never been (5)
- wrote in a journal about something I read that intrigued me (5)
- researched something online after being intrigued (5)
- read a short historical fiction (100-200 pages) (10)
- read to a child (5)
- took a younger child to the library (5)
- took a child to the story hour at a library (5)
- read a classic novel written before 1900 (25)
- read a biography (20)
- read an article from the internet about _____ (5)
- took a book on vacation and read it! (10)
- went to a library in a different town (5)
- ordered a library book online for pickup at my local library (5)
- started a read aloud with my family after dinner (15)
- suggested a family weekend without TV so we could read a book together (20)
- listened to an audio book in the car (10)
- read a book under a tree (15)
- turned off my computer to read a book (5)
- learned a new skill from a how-to book (5)
- read the book after seeing the movie (15)
- wrote in a journal comparing "reading the book to watching the movie" (10)
- gave away a book as a gift (or bought one to give away for Christmas!) (5)
- read a book of poetry (15)
- read five short stories by different authors (15)
- read a book to an elderly person (older than 70 or disabled) (25)
- read a book about a time period that interested me (20)
- went to a live play (musical or drama) (20)
- read a self-help book or a book about manners (15)
- told someone about a book I read (5)
- created something because I was inspired by a book I read (15)
- tried something new because of a book I read (15)

Evidence Evidence Evidence Evidence Evidence Evidence Evidence

Create a scrapbook or collage with the following: Collect parent or librarian signatures, dated journal entries, ticket stubs, a selfie reading on the beach (or under a tree, or somewhere special), a book summary, showtoll product, etc. or complete a brief form telling about the following: in what time period was the book set? What was the theme? Why did it interest you? Etc. Essentially, prove that you did each of the items you claim to have done.